Tunecore To Begin Delivery To New iTunes Store In Mexico

TuneCore.com -- the world's largest distributor of music -- has announced that it will begin delivering music to the newly-launched iTunes Store in Mexico next week.

Earlier today, Apple announced the immediate launch of the iTunes Store in Mexico [www.itunes.com/mexico]. Apple's press release claims that the store features "most songs priced at 12 pesos and most albums at 120 pesos."

TuneCore offers customer support and an FAQ page in Spanish.
